DNA research currently suggest that James Crow was not related to the off-spring of John Crow and his reported 3rd wife Judith McGee and was not related to the John Crow who was married to Elizabeth Clark. I have removed these relationships from within my files pending further evidence or proof of kinship.

As to the father of James Crow, there is considerable debate. However, it is fair to state that it appears most likely that James was a son of John and only some form of proof needs be attained. Some evidence does exist in that nearly all of John Crow's younger children appear in the Carolina's with James and his off-spring. Some sources say that James and family were in Baltimore County and others claim it was Hartford County. Evidence points toward Hartford.

James was married twice while he was in Hartford County but he was in the Granville area of North Carolina as early as 1753. The Will of James Crow was witnessed on the 16th, day of July, 1792. Names sons John, James, Stephen, Reubin, Isaac, Abel, William Crow; daughters

Hannah Brown, Abba Riller Pilkington, grandson Levy Crow, and granddaughter Anna Crow. He appointed two sons John and Stephen Crow sole executor of his will. No mention of a son Joshua. It is believed that Joshua preceded his father in death. Will on file in Chatham County, NC. James Crow must have died sometime prior to 7-16-1792, which is the date his will was probated. He does not appear on the census of 1792 (tax records). He and his family were members of the Baptist Church. See "A Genealogical Study of The William Marion Crow Family" by Reginald Crow, 1963. James does appear on the 1790 Tax records in the Hillsboro District along with John, William, Stephen, and Isaac. Examination of DAR 555815 and of the will of James Crow seems to prove that the men with James were indeed, his son's.

The history of the Crow's in America is an interesting one. In 1666, John and Ann Crowe were transported into Dorchester County, Maryland (transported meaning they would have been indentured and required to repay the cost of their passage). In 1671, one Gournay Crow immigrated (paid his own passage) and settled on the Blackwater River in Dorchester County on an estate he called "Crowe's Nest" or, as it was sometimes called, "Crowe's Lodge". In 1673, a Francis Crow was transported into Dorchester and in 1675, a Ralph Crow arrived. The relationships between these various Crow's is not known but that they were somehow related to Gournay, seems evident. Gournay added to his estate on at least three occasions: (1) Grant #557 - "Addition to Crowe's Lodge, to Gournay Crowe for 44 acres and surveyed on 4-12-1682." (2) Grant # 635 - "East Bilbeny/Billeny to Gournay Crowe for 56 acres, surveyed 9-10-1683." (3) In 1687, a patent was issued to Gournay Crowe in Dorchester County for 116 acres, called The Addition". The name Gournay has not, to date, appear to have been carried down through the family lines and therefore leaves some mystery regarding the man and why his name did not survive. There has nothing been found to suggest that John Crow was of the Dorchester Crow family.

General Notes:

Some of the data received on John seems suspect. Problems arise when realizing his age and the age of his wife at the time children are being born. For example when the younger child Dinah was born, John was 69 and his wife was 57. There is also a problem of having two sons named William. Such as this is not unheard of, but infrequent unless of course, the first child died young. The first child named William was born Abt 1776 in South Carolina and the second was born Abt 1801, in Pickins, South Carolina. It is known that an apparently unrelated group of Crow's were in the Pickins area, and attaching the children born there to this John may be eventually proven incorrect. Future studies may dispel some of the confusion. Info on John is found in a book printed by Howard Crosby Smiley and DAR records of Amanda Kirby Street, daughter of Elizabeth Crow and Jason Kirby. Several researchers believe this John (born 2-23-1734/5) is the brother of James (shown here as his father) and each man to be the sons of John. Other researchers place him as a son of James (1713). It is also known that there were two John Crow's, of about the same age, in the area at this time; one was the son of James, and the other was his brother.

Another situation arises with the possibility that John had children by his first wife, Ruth Holland (Randolph and Samuel) One source says these were children with Elizabeth, but their births occur before John married Elizabeth. Considering that John and Ruth were married for upwards of ten years it is very possible that they had children.

A John Crow was in Chatham County, North Carolina as evidenced by a payment voucher written by John Ramsey on April 10, 1781. This payment voucher (# 24) authorized payment to John Crow for 12 1/2 bushels of corn to be used by the Militia or Continental Troops of North Carolina and payment was to be made in Spanish Milled Dollars (North Carolina Colonial Records, p1299, 733, 734 and Rev. Army Accounts, Vol XI, p 31, folio 2). This record also shows that he was one of 22 men to be exempted from paying taxes in Orange County. This petition was made in 1764 and he was married to Ruth Holland at the time.

This same record shows a John Crow appearing with Mansfield Crow (another brother of James) as two of the 108 men who petitioned the Governor to reduce certain filing fees in Orange County. Mansfield's presence in the area strongly suggest a relationship of Mansfield to James Crow, the father of John and possibly a brother, which would suggest both men were sons of John Crow and not William.

John appears on the census records for Chatham County, North Carolina with four sons under age 10 and four sons age 10 through 15. Residing near him was the son Abel.

Hannah Simpson is the daughter of William Simpson and Elizabeth Preble ^[1]. She was born on 16 Nov 1722 in St. George's Parish, Hartford County, Maryland ^[1]. She died on 01 Mar 1741 in St. George's Parish, Hartford County, Maryland ^[1].

General Notes:

A HISTORY OF THE CROW FAMILY
COMPILED BY SARAH NAOMI CROW WALLIS

MANY THANKS TO NAOMI WHO PUT A LOT OF TIME AND WORK INTO GATHERING MOST OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED ON THE CROW FAMILY

An Overview of the Crow Family History

Through my research, I believe that our ancestors were pioneers in the early settlement of America. The 1800 Census of North Carolina lists four men named Crow living in Chatham County, North Carolina. I believe they were brothers. They were Abel, Abner, John and Stephen Crow. The Joseph Habersham Chapter, DAR, Volume II, page 391, states the Crows were from Sussex County, Virginia.

While I have not been able to establish the father of our Martin Crow, I believe that Stephen Crow was the grandfather or uncle of our Martin Crow. The Crow family had a unique way of naming their sons. Often, in my research, I have found that a father would name his son after his (the father's) brother. This has made the research very difficult, but interesting. While the research follows the life of Stephen Crow, it also shows the movement of our relatives across America.

Stephen Crow was born on February 28, 1750. He married Margaret Peggy Stroud. Her parents, John and Margaret Stroud were founding members of the Mars Hill Baptist Church, Oconee County (formerly Clarke County), Georgia. Markers at the Mars Hill Baptist Church show that John Stroud and Stephen Crow were in the Revolutionary War. Their graves are marked by metal plaques.

Stephen Crow and Margaret Peggy Stroud had six children. They were Abner, Eli, Rachel, Joshua, Martin, and Aaron. Records show that Joshua, Martin and Aaron served as Riflemen, Privates, during the War of 1812 for Georgia.

Land was opened for settlement after the Battle of Horseshoe Bend and the Cherokee Indians experienced the "trail of tears". It was made available through land and gold lotteries. Martin Crow, Denson Crow, Abner Crow and Aaron Crow were listed in the 1832 Georgia Gold Lottery. Martin Crow, Denson Crow, and Marlin T. Crow (the son of Aaron Crow) were listed on the 1832 Cherokee Land Lottery of Georgia.

Stephen Crow died on August 5, 1830. He left a remarkable will that is included in this booklet. While I will restate that Stephen Crow may have been the grandfather or uncle of our Martin Crow, I believe this to be a noteworthy entry in our family records. Stephen Crow had, at the time of his death, five hundred and fifty-three acres of land, ten slaves and several heads of livestock.

Aaron Crow, Stephen Crow's son, also left a will. In it he names his son Marlin T. (not Martin) as one who will inherit "that which she +|_ _knows". It also states "his other children", which are not listed by name. Aaron Crow ~d have been the father of our Martin Crow.

The early members of the Crow family continue to migrate westward during the early and mid 1800's. Martin Crow (father of Robert Denson Crow) moved to Randolph County, Alabama and was listed on the 1850 Census. He later moved to Tallapoosa County, Alabama and married Sarah Jane Mezick, on September 18, 1846. He was drawn to this area because of gold mines that were operating in Tallapoosa County, Alabama. Two gold mines were Ulrich's Dutch Gold Mine and "Hog Mountain Cold Mine".

Register Report for James Crow

A Dentson Crow (spelled as listed) and Martin Crow (grandfather of Noah Persible Crow) were listed as serving in W. A. Stricklin's (spelled as listed) First Class Militia, for Beat 11, Tallapoosa County, Alabama during the War Between the States. Dentson Crow is listed as a sergeant and Martin Crow is listed as a private. Their ages were fifty-five and fifty-three, respectfully. Thus, they served to protect their homes and their neighbor's homes while others participated in active military involvement.

Robert (Dentson Crow, father of Noah Persible Crow, was born on January 7, 1851. He married Sarah Jane Trussell on October 2, 1874. Robert Denson followed in the footsteps of his father, Martin, by working in area gold mines. He died on October 3, 1888.

My father, Noah Crow, had always told the story of how his father died as follows: His father was trying to get a morning fire started in the fireplace. However, this was quite difficult since the matches had gotten wet during the night. He tried to dry the matches by blowing them. At some point, the matches blazed up and Robert Denson inhaled a large amount of sulfur. Soon after he died. However, records at the Tallapoosa County Courthouse in Dadeville, Alabama state that he died of a brain tumor.

While the area around Goldville had once boasted of 14 stores, nearly a dozen saloons, two hotels, schools and several churches, the town had lost many settlers as gold was discovered in California.

This must have been a very difficult time for Sarah Jane Crow. She had four very young children to raise. My father was only two years old. At some point she moved to Talladega County Alabama. My father said that he was hired out to a farmer when he was about five years old. It was his job to drop seeds in the furrows as the farmer plowed. He also told that he worked in the Sycamore Plant of Avondale Mills when he was a child. He had to stand on a box in order to reach the very dangerous machinery.

While I have yet to document the accurate family relationship, one very interesting relative is another Denson Crow. When he died, he left several outstanding debts to area residents and to the J. C. Whaley Company and Crayton, Smith and Company.

In order to pay his debts, his wife, Emily, legally asked the court for proceeding to settle his debts. This was achieved by selling all his personal belongings.

Because of records from J. C. Whaley and Company, I believe that Denson Crow was providing a "service" to miners in the area. This "service" may have included owning a bar or simply "bootlegging". It is quite interesting to see the various items that this Denson Crow purchased.

It is equally remarkable the legal proceedings that were held in order to settle his debts. In the documents, it states that Denson Crow had no children; but his wife, Emily, was left without anything. Even the groceries in the house were taken to be used to pay for the debts.

Cemetery Records of Harmony Presbyterian Cemetery, located three and one-half miles north of Horseshoe Bend National Military Park on Highway 49, in Tallapoosa county, Alabama, state that Reverend Denson Crow died on May 12, 1872, had a Double Masonic Emblem. His wife, Emily, died on June 15, 1875.

Generation 2 (con't)

The Crow family had a unique way of naming their sons. Often, in my research, I have found that a father would name his son after his (the father's) brother. This has made the research very difficult.

While I am still researching, I do believe that Stephen Crow was the father or grandfather of our Martin Crow.

Stephen Crow was born on February 28, 1750. He Died on August 6, 1830. He is buried at Mar's Hill Baptist Church, in Oconee County, Georgia.

Stephen Crow married Margaret Peggy Stroud. Her father was John Stroud. Her mother was Margaret Connelly Stroud.

Martin Crow, Sr.

(Grandfather of Noah Persible Crow)

Martin Crow, Sr. and Sarah Jane Mezick were married on September 18, 1846, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama.

A Martin Crow is listed on W. A. Stricklin's First Class Militia, Beat 11, Tallapoosa County, Alabama during the War Between the States. He was listed as 53 years old. His rank was private. While there is no date on the Muster List, I believe it to be written between 1861-1865. This would mean that Martin Crow was born between 1808 and 1812. Since this was the location of our ancestors, I believe that this Martin Crow was our Martin Crow.

Martin Crow had eleven children. They were:

Records in Tallapoosa County show that Sarah Jane Treadwell married a James A. Crow on November 7, 1872. Talladega County records show that Sarah Jane Crow married a William Hamilton on February 11, 1909. Could this be the same woman? If so her full name would be:

Sarah Jane Trussell Treadwell Crow Crow Hamilton

Robert Denson Crow was born on January 7, 1851. He died of a brain tumor on October 3, 1888. Sarah Jane Trussell was born on February 4, 1854. She died on April 13, 1909.

NOTES FOR ABRAHAM ABEL CROW

AT LEAST ONE RESEARCHER HAS ABEL'S DATE OF BIRTH AS ABT 1765, WHICH MIGHT BE RIGHT[crowhistory.ged]

At least one researcher has Abel's date of birth as Abt, 1765, another has it as 1756. Either might be correct. A key researcher has been Jim Veregee. This researcher also states that Abel had a son named James. The names of two children shown on this report are in question and may likely be mistakes: James, and Samuel Houston. By 1824, Abel was 69 years of age when Samuel was born and his wife not of child bearing age. Some researchers state that Abel married a second wife named Henrietta Marsh in 1824 but Sarah reportedly didn't die until about 1845. This too is likely a mistake and it is believed that the Abel who married Henrietta was this Abel's nephew and son of his half-brother, John (Son of James 1713 and his first wife, Hannah Simpson). Other researchers show Abel had two sons named William and that both men married Patsy Bowers. The William born in 1802 is considered a mistake. Abraham is mentioned in very few Roane County records but he is mentioned in Tennessee Land Grant issued to James Buckhannon in 1825. A web site with info can be found at:

James was listed in his father's will of 1795 to receive a portion and to serve as Executor of the will. Children Anna and Levi do not appear on some records but may have died young. Info: Dale Morgan, Abstract of Wills by Fred A. Olds, research notes of Virginia T. Fowler. Believed to have married an Indian and moved to the Indian lands in North Georgia. He was evicted by the government. Information from a descendant shows that James was in Jackson County, Georgia during 1805 per the land lottery and in Elbert County, Georgia (along with his brother, Stephen) as early as April 28, 1791 where he and wife, Hannah, sold land to William Gordon. The child named Sion is found in Hall County along with the other Crow's and is believed to have been a son of James. Proof of this connection has yet to be found.

29. vi. John S. Crow [1]. He was born on 06 May 1797 in Orange County, North Carolina [1]. He married Martha Roberts. They were married on 24 Aug 1847 in Rusk County, Texas [1]. He died Jan 1851 in Louisiana [1].

vii. Abel Crow [1]. He was born on 09 May 1801 in Orange County, North Carolina [1].

Notes for Abel Crow:

General Notes:
[crowhistory.ged]

LDS files show his birth in the year 1803. During 1830 Abel was in Walton County, Georgia and shown between the age of 20 and 30. There were two females; one age 20 to 30 and one between 40 and 50. The 1840 census shows Abel between the ages of 30 and 40 while the 1850 census shows him aged 49, so 1801 appears accurate. His wife was shown between the ages of 40 and 50 in 1840 and age 60 in 1850 so she was about eleven years older than he was. There was one female child between ages of 5 and 10 in 1840 but no children in 1850. The older woman on the 1830 census does not appear to have been the same woman on the 1840 and 1850 census records but it does seem that Abel may have been married at least twice; once to a woman about his own age and then to Henrietta.

On the 1820 Clarke County Georgia census, he appears with one male child between 16 and 26, himself a s over 45 and one female between 10 and 16 and wife, over 45. 1830 Clarke Co. GA. census. Stephen reportedly came to Georgia around 1801 but it may have been earlier. He was active in land deals, buying his first land, 150 acres, in 1783. He is one of the executors of his father's will in 1792. His father does not bequeath to Stephen any land. There were at least eight tracts of land registered to Stephen Crow in Clarke County, Georgia prior to 1800.

Stephen was admitted to the membership of Mar's Hill Baptist Church on 01/1804, by experience and excluded from the membership on Jan. 17, 1806. There was no explanation given for this but just few months earlier, Stephen and his father-in-law were fishing and John Stroud either fell from a boat or a foot bridge (I've heard two versions) and drowned. Stephen was possibly considered a drunkard. His sister-in-law, Elizabeth Stroud, apparently never forgave him.

Stephen Crow is buried on the outside of the fence to the Stroud cemetery lot. Elizabeth Stroud Crow did not think that Stephen was "quality" so refused to allow him to be buried in the Stroud plot. Elizabeth was married to Stephen's brother Isaac Crow. The death date is in question because his will was not probated until 1834.

Some info from Dale Morgan, Census records, Court records from Clark Co. GA. Stephen is listed as a Revolutionary War soldier, with metal. Grave stone says Georgia Troops Revolutionary War. On the 1792 Chatham Co. NC census, Stephen Crow, plus 4 males under 16 years and 2 females. Also in that census were Isaac, James, John, William Crow. 1800 census Chatham Co. NC. 12101-00001-02. In May 1796, Stephen and his wife Margaret, sold 150 acres of land at Stumpy Mountain to his brother John. In November of that same year Stephen bought 200 acres of land on Haw River from his brother Isaac, and his wife Elizabeth. The property was on the "North side of Haw River, to Ruben Crow's line." Also included was 30 acres with all the houses, orchards, and gardens. This was probably the portion of property left to Isaac in his father's will. It included the old home place. It is believed that Stephen went to Georgia after selling his property. The deed was witnessed by his brother John. Stephen moved to Clarke County, Georgia between 1800 and 1804. He participated in the 1805 Georgia Land Lottery. One of the requirements to be eligible to draw in the lottery was to have been a resident of Georgia for at least one year. He was not successful in drawing any land in 1805 but drew again in 1807 as a resident of Brown's District, Clarke County. He received land in Wilkinson County, Georgia. In December 1808, as a resident of Clarke County, he sold 250 acres of land in North Carolina to his brother John. The land was on the North side of Haw River, by Wilkinson Creek. In 1827, Stephen drew in another Georgia land lottery and drew land in Muscogee and Coweta counties, Georgia.

Two records state that Stephen served in Knight's Revolutionary Soldier's and McCall's Roster of Revolutionary Soldier's, both in Georgia. These records are likely incorrect as he was not in Georgia at the time. Most likely he did service in Chatham County, North Carolina and he was listed as Stephen Cron in Captain Isiah Hogan's Company. His name mis-spelled as was the names of his brothers, John, James, and Joshua.

Stephen reportedly came to Georgia around 1801 but it may have been earlier. He was active in land deals, buying his first land, 150 acres, in 1783. Religion was Quaker. Some info on this family sheet came from family sheet of Sherry Healy, Chatsworth, Calif. Reportedly buried at Darwin Cemetery. Some researchers report a child named Ann, in addition to Nancy Ann.

Reuben received 10 shillings in his father's will, 50 acres of land on Colbeser Mountain, and the upper 1/2 of the plantation where his father was living. Records show that on January 11, 1790, Ruben Crow, a hatter, of Chatham County, North Carolina, sold to John Crow, his brother, 320 acres of land in Rutherford County, North Carolina, on the waters of Little Hickory Creek.

Reuben's will, filed on July 5, 1824 in Clarke County, Illinois, Estate Box #9, named children: Reuben, Nancy, Ann, Naomi, Rebecca, Jane, Rachael, Grace, Ruth, Hannah, Abigail, Joshua M., John, James, and William.

LDS files show his birth in the year 1803. During 1830 Abel was in Walton County, Georgia and shown between the age of 20 and 30. There were two females; one age 20 to 30 and one between 40 and 50. The 1840 census shows Abel between the ages of 30 and 40 while the 1850 census shows him aged 49, so 1801 appears accurate. His wife was shown between the ages of 40 and 50 in 1840 and age 60 in 1850 so she was about eleven years older than he was. There was one female child between ages of 5 and 10 in 1840 but no children in 1850. The older woman on the 1830 census does not appear to have been the same woman on the 1840 and 1850 census records but it does seem that Abel may have been married at least twice; once to a woman about his own age and then to Henrietta.

Notes for Joshua Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

During 1800 he was still living with his parents in Chatham County, North Carolina. In 1805, listed on land lottery along with Stephen, Henry, and Isaac Crow. During 1810 there was a Joshua Croe in Randolph County, North Carolina and this could be him. Residing nearby was a Reuben Croe. In 1812 listed in Alexander's Battalion, Rifleman, Private for Georgia during the War of 1812. On 1830 Census in DeKalb County, Georgia. Living next door to him at this time was Dickerson Messick (name spelled Mezzick) who was the father of Sarah Jane who married Joshua's son Martin. Also in DeKalb during 1840 with two youngest sons. The child named Annie does not appear in some research studies but may be the individual usually listed as "Young Crow" by some researchers. Both shown for the moment. It is also not for certain that he had a son named Denson. The year of birth for this Denson is the same date as for the child of Joshua's Uncle William Crow. During 1830 there was a Dennison Crow between the ages of 20 and 30, living near Joshua and this may have been his son who is currently carried as Denson. To the best of this writers knowledge, no will for Joshua has yet been found. Hence, some children listed may in fact, not be his.

Annis Browning is the daughter of Joshua Browning and Margaret Rankin [1]. She was born on 20 Aug 1785 in Indian Lands, Henry County, Georgia [1]. She died 1835 in DeKalb County, Georgia [1].

Abner was living very near his parents during the census of 1800 in Chatham County, North Carolina with two sons under age of 10. He came to St. Clair County, Alabama in 1820 leaving his son Wesley. Abner returned to DeKalb Co. GA. in the 1850's and came back with his other children and settled in Benton Co. Ala. He is buried at Crow Family Cemetery in Eastaboga, Calhoun Co., AL. This is near Jacksonville, Ala. Abner is a twin to Aaron. Abner is back in DeKalb County, Georgia during the 1830 census living near his brother Joshua.

Mrs. Victor L. Erikson states that Abner Crow died in Temple, Carroll Co. GA. while another source says he died in St. Clair County, Alabama. While yet another source states he is buried in Ashville, Alabama. Some sources do not show a child named David yet he was with the family during the census of 1850. RESULT OF THE YOUNGER CHILD DYING EARY. FUTHER STUDY MAY HELP EXPLAIN THE QUESTIONS.[crowhistory.ged]

Reportedly buried at Tanner's Church Cemetery in Clayton County, (South of Atlanta and previously called Forest Park) Georgia but grave site not found. It may not be marked. There are two Joshua's shown by most researcher's. The birth dates are different (one in 1815 and one in 1830) and could be a result of the younger child dying early but this is unlikely as Martin, Jr. was reportedly born in January 1815 which leaves another problem as the son, Levi, was born in August 1814 (only five months apart). Further study may help explain the questions. Apparently faced considerable suits from others over land but I have not had the opportunity to study those court records as yet. Deeded his estate to his son Stephen in 1843. There may have been two unknown children; both apparently dying young. Some sources do not show children named George Washington, Nancy or Sarah. One final concern I currently have is that the son, Stephen R. was reportedly born in Mississippi and then the remaining children are shown as being born back in Georgia. Still, I suppose it's possible that the family moved and then returned.

May have had a daughter named Elizabeth besides Mary Elizabeth. It is reported that this Elizabeth married a Jacob Crow. The only Jacob I can suggest would be the son of Daniel Crow and Mary Cox, but I show the children assigned to Elizabeth as the children of her sister, Mary Elizabeth. See "The Burnett's and their Connections" by June Bork. Other in depth research has been conducted by Sydney "Skippy" Davis and Donna C. Maxwell. These two ladies have proved most of the children assigned to Rachel except the Nathan shown. The current thinking is that this was Nathan Barnett, not Burnett. No Nathan Burnett shows up in the area.

Information from Bert Cantrell. Family is on the 1850 census for New Site, Tallapoosa County, Alabama. The census indicates the entire family were born in Georgia but does not show Parmelia who reportedly was born in 1849. Denson's name is misspelled (Dincent) and his age is incorrectly shown as 25 (he was 45 at the time). The census was taken on December 27, 1850. The family Bible shows he was born on the 14th but his headstone shows the 11th, per Doug Whaley <dubled128@aol.com>. The 1860 New Site census index shows him as Denson Crose but an examination of the actual census shows the name spelled Ceowe. He and Emily appear with five children: Martha 22; Eliza 20; Jane 17; Sarah 15; Stephen 13; and Boland 10. The 1870 census finds him again in Tallapoosa County with wife and two children: Isaac and Nancy.

Emily Brown [1]. She was born on 12 May 1808 in GEORGIA [1]. She died on 15 Jun 1875 in New Site, Tallapoosa County, Alabama [1]. Burial in Old Harmony Church Cemetery, Tallapoosa, County, Alabama [1].

Notes for Joshua M. Crow:

General Notes:

There's some discussion on Martha Skeen as being a wife of Joshua. Some sources show her, others do not. It seems fairly obvious that Joshua and Martha Skeen were married and had the children shown. However, it would appear unlikely that he married the other two women he reportedly married, as Martha did not die until 4-28-1868, at age 77. Divorce was somewhat uncommon during the time period but is not beyond the realm of possibility, however, that would mean that all his children were not by Martha and it is believed they were. I feel the conclusion is that apparently there was another Joshua Crow in the area but I don't find evidence of another Joshua, from Orange County, North Carolina who ended up in Indiana, except the son of this Joshua. According to some researchers, Joshua also married 2nd - Priscilla Hitchcock on 4-15-1819 in Washington County, Indiana and Elizabeth Patrick Wilson in Vigo County, Indiana during 1829. With Elizabeth, he reportedly had a daughter named Naomi who married Silas Comer. Joshua and Martha reportedly had 12 children but efforts to find them all have led to blank walls to date. According to the biography of his son, Joshua, the family moved to Indiana in 1821.

Martha Skeen is the daughter of Matthew Skeen and Rutha Lamar. She was born on 04 Aug 1790 in Rowan, North Carolina [1]. She died on 28 Apr 1868 in Washington County, Indiana [1]. Burial in Crow-Morris Cemetery [1].

Notes for Thomas Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Buried at Popular Springs Cemetery. The Official History of Whitfield County recites that in 1836, Thomas Crow cleared land and built a house near the Poplar Springs Church. In 1974, a grandson, J. L. Murphy, was residing in the old home of Thomas. He and family appear in Murray County, Georgia during the 1850 census. Some of the ages of children are different than reported by descendants.

Mary Cox [1]. She was born on 15 Oct 1804 in South Carolina [1]. She died on 26 Feb 1876 in Crow Valley, Whitfield County, Georgia [1]. Nickname in Polly [1].

Notes for Sarah A. Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Conflicting data gives Joseph and Jacob Blanton as husbands of Fatima. Further studies may provide more accurate information. For the present, data as reported herein will stand. One source gives date of death as 3-17-1861 which is incorrect as she married in November of 1861. Her age on the 1850 census was 10.

- ix. Fatima Crow [1]. She was born on 27 Aug 1839 in Dalton, Whitfield County, Georgia [1]. She married Jacob A. Blanton. They were married on 20 Jun 1866 [1].

45. Stephen Crow-3 (John Crow-2, James Crow-1) [1]. He was born on 12 Mar 1802 in SPARTANBURG, SOUTH CAROLINA [1]. He died on 29 Aug 1887 in Pope County, Arkansas [1].

Notes for Stephen Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Info off the internet from Cora Majek. Stephen had 12 children, 7 preceded him in death. His last words were reportedly, "Peace, Peace, Let there be peace".

Found in 1850 Murray County, Georgia census, page 195. At the time of death he was living near Caglesville in Pope County, Arkansas. One source states he married at Dalton, Whitfield County, Georgia in January 1841. The 1860 census finds Stephen in Whitfield County, Georgia with Tempy and seven children.

Stephen was likely married twice. The 1830 census shows him between the ages of 20 and 30 with two sons under age five; one daughter under age five; and his wife aged 20 to 30.

Tempy Ann Boyd [1]. She was born 1811 in GEORGIA [1]. She died on 25 Apr 1892 in Arkansas [1].

46. Marlin Towne Crow-4 (Aaron Crow-3, Stephen Crow-2, James Crow-1) [1]. He was born Abt. 1812 in Clarke County, Georgia [1]. He died on 15 Aug 1862 in Marysville, Cooke County, Texas [1].

Notes for Marlin Towne Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

There is a question about Marlin. One source calls him Martin, and while the 1850 index to the Clark Co. GA. census, lists him as Martin, an examination of the actual census clearly shows Marlin. Marriage records of Clarke Co. Ga. lists Marlin Crow married Sarah A. Browning. Found record of Marlin T. Crow married Sara Bell Browning Aug 22, 1837 Clarke Co. GA. On 1840 Clarke Co. GA. census. The 1850 High Shoals, Clarke Co. GA. census, page 58. Marlin and Sarah, 7 children and a Lucy Browning age 18, born GA. living in household. Lucy maybe be sister of Sarah. Researcher of this family has been Robert Daniel of Jacksonville, Florida. Vinson shows him as Martin Towne. Recent contact with a descendant, James Huber, clarifies Marlin Towne Crow as shown herein and resolves all questions I had. While Marlin reportedly did not die until 1862, his wife and children are found on the 1860 census of Union County, Louisiana without him.

Sarah Ann Margaret Browning is the daughter of John Browning and Jane Howze [1]. She was born on 20 Jan 1820 in GEORGIA [1]. She died on 12 Mar 1897 in Gatesville, Coryell County, Texas [1].

Notes for Sarah Ann Margaret Browning:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Shown as head of household during the 1860 census of Union County, Louisiana. At this time the children in the home were: Mansel 14, Jane 17, Nancy 13, Wilbur 10, Frank 8, Marlin 6 (name looked like Joseph), Luther 4, T. L. 1, and Clementine Kelly 20. Clementine had a son named William, aged 4. During the 1870 census of Tyler County, Texas Sarah was living with her son Mansel. In the home, besides Mansel's family, were her other children: Clementine 31, Eva 25 (must have been Evaline), Francis P. 18, Marlin R. 16, Luther P. 14, and Thomas 11.

Marlin Towne Crow and Sarah Ann Margaret Browning. They were married on 22 Aug 1837 in Clarke County, Georgia. They had 11 children.

48. Charles Aaron Crow-4 (Aaron Crow-3, Stephen Crow-2, James Crow-1) [1]. He was born 1828 in GEORGIA [1]. He died 1885 in Oconee, Georgia [1].

Notes for Charles Aaron Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

One source gives his birth during 1840. During 1870 he is in Watkinsville, Georgia with his wife named Frances. He was shown as age 37 while his wife was 34. Children were: Pulaski 15; Charlie 11; Sallie 3; and Sheffield 5 months. The 1880 census of Watkinsville, Oconee County, Georgia shows him aged 50 with his wife named as Loula and six children: Pulaski 24; Lilly 13; Sheffield 11; Pattie 4; Tennie 2; and Cotter 4 months. The wife Loula, was shown as age 24 so this would appear to have been a second wife or an error with her age, but I doubt the latter. Not sure which wife bore the children after 1870 so have only the three youngest with his second wife. I tend to think the date of birth for Aaron as shown is wrong and he was likely born between 1830 and 1833.

Notes for Tinsey S. Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

For a long time it was believed that Tinzey Crow was a male named Finzey. Discussions with descendant Ami Hart, coupled with various other sources of data has convinced me that this was not the case. Her first name is generally spelled Tinsey and her death certificate shows her as Mary Tinsey S. Her headstone provides her date of birth. She and her husband are found living in the Blackhall District of De Kalb County, Georgia during the 1850 census near Meredith Brown who married Tinsey's sister, Sarah. While I have not the proof, I suspect Meredith and William were brothers. The 1860 census shows this couple in Panthersville, De Kalb County with six children. The child named Joshua in 1850 is now named James.

Notes for Martin Crow:

General Notes:

Found in 1850 Randolph Co. ALA. census. Martin and wife Jane, Henry age 2, Samanthia age 1/12 and a James Mezick, age 20 born in GA. This James is likely a younger brother of Sarah's. They are living next door to Joshua and Elizabeth Crow (Martin's brother). In this census Martin and Jane are said to be born in GA. During the 1860 census of Tallapoosa County, Alabama with his last name spelled Crowe. He and Jane both shown as born in Georgia and all children born in Alabama.

Found in 1870 Tallapoosa Co. Ala. census. Martin and wife Jane, there was also a Wash Crow age 23 earning money in household, (this fact causes many to believe this was a son of Martin's) all are said to be born in Ala. There were also Max Allen age 11, male, attending school, Carrie Allen age 6, female and Cecil Allen age 3, male, in household. These children were all from Ala. Info above left intact, however, Martin and Sarah Jane had no son named Washington according to the family Bible. This is likely the son of Meredith Mariday Crow. The 1880 census finds Martin and Sarah living in Hackneyville, Tallapoosa County with six children at home. Martin Enlisted in the Army on June 9, 1836 at Decatur, Georgia under Captain James M. Calhoun's Company of Georgia Volunteers. Battalion Commander was Col. Julius C. Alford. Fought in the war with the Creek Indians in Stewart County. Received a musket ball to the knee on July 24, 1836 and was honorably discharged at Columbus, Ga. on September 13, 1836. He can be found applying for pension several years afterward. Following his death Sarah Jane continued to receive the pension until 1894. Clay County, Alabama marriage records state the date of marriage to Sarah as September 20, 1846.

It has not been proven, at this time, that Martin's first name was William. Some have speculated that his name was Martin Clark Crow, Sr. He did have one grandson named William Martin who was the son of Martin Clark Crow. There is also some speculation that his name may have been Marlin rather than Martin but his marriage certificate clearly calls him Martin as does all census records.

Sarah Jane Messick is the daughter of Dickerson Doughty Messick and Sally Bedsworth^[1]. She was born on 25 Sep 1827 in GEORGIA^[1]. She died Abt. 1894^[1].

Buried in Crow Family Cemetery Eastaboga, Alabama. Listed in census of 1830, DeKalb, County as a single man aged 20 to 30. LDS reports he was born in Chatham, North Carolina. One researcher lists Elizabeth as dying in 1856 and another child named Eliza who married Dulaney. This researcher also does not show a son named Warren but does show a George Austin 1865 to 1895. Another researcher shows the child named Rolin as Robin. During 1840 he was in Talladega County, Alabama shown between the ages of 30 and 40. His wife was shown between ages of 20 and 30. There were two children in the home at this time (The eldest son, Rolin and a girl between the ages of 10 and 15 but I am not sure who this child was). The census of 1850 finds Austin in Benton County, Alabama. At that time, Martha is shown as age 36, Rolin's name is spelled Roling; Austin and Martha are shown as born in Georgia and all children as born in Alabama. On that census the first six children appear as shown. The 1860 census finds the family in Calhoun County, Alabama. At this time Austin is shown age 52 and Martha age 38. Children as shown were: Rowling 20; Richard 18; Robert 16; David 14; Warren 11; Augustine 8; Perrile (Paralee) 14; Eliza 8; and Mary 3. On this census Austin is shown as born in North Carolina and Martha born in Georgia.

Notes for Roland Bryant Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

First name is often spelled Rolin and occasionally, Rowland (census of 1840) but on the census of 1850 for St. Clair County, Alabama it was spelled Roling. At this time he had six children at home as follows: Ferrington 13, Margaret E. 11, John W. 9, Musadora 7, Abner 5, and Roling B., Jr. 3. On the census of 1860 he was also in St. Clair County, Alabama with the name spelled Roland. On this census all his children, except Ferrington, were at home. He is often confused with a supposed son of Jacob Crow and Mary Elizabeth Burnett. LDS records support the belief that Roland was a son of Abner Crow and Elizabeth Bryant, hence, the middle name, Bryant and the naming of a son Abner. LDS has no record of a son with this name attached to Jacob Crow, whose lineage is also unknown, at this time. Roland was in the same location during the 1870 census. At this time there were five of his children at home: Abner 26; Rolland 22; Emma 18; Pinkney 16; and Mary 13. There was a 7 year old Francis Harrington in the home also. The 1880 census of Ashville, St. Clair County, spells his name Rowland and he appears with his wife, two daughters and two grandchildren. One was a 17 year old Franklin Crow but I'm not sure which son this child belonged to.

Re: Carolyn Gail Crowe <clownsalso@aol.com>. Found in Chalk Bluff, Clay County, Arkansas during the 1880 census with wife and five children is a C. C. Crow but this man is married to a Mary L. and Christopher should have been married to Sarah Louise Horn by this time. The 1880 census of Mc Minn County, Tennessee shows Columbus Crow married to Louise with children named Minnie; Willie; Jennie; and Hugh. The man in Arkansas and Christopher are clearly not the same man and it seems apparent that Christopher was not married to one of these women, either Mary Swan or Sarah Horn. I suspect he was not married to Mary Swan and I have dropped her from further consideration. The 1870 census finds him married to his first wife and with two children in the home: Minnie 1; and William 1 month.

Notes for James H. Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Some sources do not report the 6th child. James and Sarah were without children during the census of 1860 in Tallapoosa County, Alabama and living next door to his sister, Frances, and her husband Levi Justice. Also living very near to James was Isham Whaley whose son, Joshua, married another sister of James, Sarah Pearce. The 1870 census finds James living next to his father with wife and three children: Isaac; Ida; and Ella.

Sarah B. Crow [1]. She was born on 07 May 1840 in ALABAMA [1]. She died on 19 Jun 1893 in Fairy, Hamilton County, Texas [1]. Burial in Fairy Cemetery, Hamilton County, Texas [1].

Notes for Sarah B. Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Maiden name reported as Crow. Lineage believed unknown. The source states that Sarah was a daughter of Isaac Crow, born 5-17-1795 (older brother of Denson, father of James) and Jenette Cash, born 5-7-1840. The year of birth is obviously incorrect for Jenette. The fact that Sarah and James Crow would have been first cousins raises questions but is not beyond possibility.

- One source states that Mary died young and that there were no children. Other sources claim there were five children. There must be some error here as the first child was born when Mary was but 10 years of age and George was but 6 years old. I suspect these children do not belong with these parents as Mary reportedly died in 1901 and descendants state there were no children. The children shown on some records were: Elejale 1872, Ole E. 1874, Rosella 1880, Finn M. 1883 & married Belle K. (?), and John 1886. In fact, George and Mary appear on the 1920 census of Rock Castle, DeKalb County, Alabama. He was shown as age 53 and Mary as 60.

Daughter, Fae, apparently still born. Name may have been spelled Dicey or this was her nickname. Several researchers report her as Dicey A. Marriage date and place is also quoted differently by some as 11-5-1850 in Murray Springs, Georgia. The latter may be correct as she does appear as Dicey A. on the 1850 census and as age 21 at the time. She is buried in Poplar Springs. Finally, some sources do not show a child named Fae, and this may have been a nickname for one of the girls. During the 1850 census she was reported as only 21 years of age, suggesting 1829 as her year of birth.

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Crow:
General Notes:
[crowhistory.ged]

The two children shown by Thomas and Nancy, are frequently reported as sister's of Thomas, not his children, however, his father had no such children. However, the 1860 Whitfield County, Georgia census does show these two girls in his father's household. This gives rise to the belief that they may be sister's of his second wife or could be sister's of Thomas Jefferson. With Thomas Jefferson, the 1860 census shows him as Head of Household with the following: Edith age 32 of Tennessee, Mary E. age 7, Sarena J, age 6, Louisa age 5. Finally, Thomas and his second wife were married after the two girls were born. I suspect these were his sisters but this situation is still being examined. He was shown as age 18 on the 1850 census. 1870 finds him in De Kalb County with his second wife and a daughter, Mary E., age 11. The 1880 census finds him in De Kalb County, Alabama with wife Jane and one 20 year old daughter, Mary.

Lymon Crow once stated that the home of his parents were about 2 miles from this church. Headstone states date of death as 12-17-1910. Married by Rev. M. B. Garrett. Pictures of Martin show he was about 5' 9" tall, of slender built and with a dark tanned complexion. Family rumors suggest that he was part Indian, but that would appear totally false given his lineage. In a letter written by his sister Permille to his brother, John Dickerson, Martin's birth date is stated as March 30, 1865. According to this census Wilson's wife was born in Georgia, not Alabama as reported. Recent information from Deborah Keatts, a descendant, clears up a great deal of confusion on this family line. Wilson should have been around during the 1920 census but as yet I have not found him.

Notes for Warren W. Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Not certain of Warren but the 1920 census shows a Miss Warren Crow, aged 45, living in Searcey, While County, Arkansas. The indication that this was a female could easily have been an error. Marriage records show that Warren married in Sebastian County so the Miss Warren Crow was likely a Mrs. and Warren was possibly deceased by 1920.

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

Conflicting data comes to us from <<http://www.bayou.com/~suelynn/>> where the names of three children are noted, not all appear in other sources: John, James, and Eli. The James Nathaniel, son of William, have children with nearly identical names. Only the estimated years of birth are significantly different. One source gives the wife's name as Annie (?) and shows the children as: James Walter, Susie, Clara after 1855, Mattie after 1855, and Sam About 1859 and marrying Nannie Baugh. Because Sam has descendants, his name has been left herein pending clarification. John Van Crow also had a son named Sam and this could likely be his son. James appears on the 1880 census of Buncombe, Oconee County, Georgia with seven children: Annie 20, Martha 16, Louiza 15, Mary 12, Eli 9, Caroline 6, and John 4. A nephew named James F. Henel age 19, was also in the home. The correct last name may have been Hewel and he might Both buried in Head Springs. Some discussion on children, Earl and Rosie: Some researchers carry them as the children of Chambers while others carry them as children of Allen Dean. Chambers reportedly died in 1899, hence these would be children of Dean unless the death date for John Chambers is incorrect. One source reports he died in 1909, not 1899. Children apparently used the name Chambers therefore, I have enclosed them as John's children.

WILL ADD AN "E" TO HIS LAST NAME. MARRIED BY A MR. HENDERSON[crowhistory.ged]

Will add an "e" to his last name. Married by a Mr. Henderson. Will Crow left home at the age of 13 and began a lifelong career of laboring in the Cotton Mills in Sylacauga, Shamut (now Valley) and other towns in Alabama and the towns of La Grange, and Hogansville, Georgia. By the time his daughter, Mary Lee had turned 17, he had relocated to Hogansville, Georgia where he remained for nearly all the rest of his life. Following the death of his wife in 1964, Will began traveling and visiting family members until his death in 1974. He was a rather quiet, personal man and his daughter, Mary Lee, told me he never whipped his children nor raised his voice in anger. Will was about 5' 9" tall and somewhat fair skinned. Will was living in Rock Mills, Randolph County, Alabama near his future wife, during the census of 1910 and shown as a boarder in the home of Henry and Mary Lowe. His last name was spelled Crowe during this census. The census of 1920 finds him in LaGrange, Troup County, Georgia with his wife and three eldest children. At this time his last name was spelled without an "e". During 1930 the family were in Shamut (now Valley), Alabama and again Will's last name did not contain an "E".

Notes for James Nathaniel Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

There would appear to be some confusion with this James and James M. of Eli. Example: Some researchers show the children of each man as identical. The difficulty stems from the fact that both men were in Oconee County, Georgia. This James appears with his wife Anna, in the town of Wild Cat during 1880 with three children: Martha 5, Susan 3, and William 2.

Notes for John Madison Crow:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

One source states he died in Wichita, Texas. A recent source states he married his second wife, Ellen, in 1899. This is likely true but means that some of the children attributed to his first wife are clearly not hers. Example is Johnny Belle, born 11-6-1922. Being born in 1878, he likely married Lillie about 1898 and had time to birth one child, perhaps two, given there were no twins. Children's names left as shown pending clarification. One source says he was born in Rusk County, Texas.

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 1, Ed. 1, Tree #0579, Date of Import: Jan 29, 1996]

He served in the United States Army from August 19, 1916 to September 23, 1919 and received an Honorable discharge. His service number was 1052391. He is listed as a Corporal, 389 Motor Truck Company, entering service at Birmingham, Alabama. RE: National Personnel Records Center (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, April 6, 1993.

I have pictures and comments concerning his assignment in the U.S. Army Quartermaster Corps at Del Rio, Texas during the period 1918-1919. RE: John R. Braden, 01-24-95.

Ninety five percent of the information known of this man was word-of-mouth stories told by his brother, Dock Dewey Braden, old photographs graciously given to his family by the family of Lucille Braden Roberson, and from old letters, most of them from him to his wife and, by some miracle, saved by her and passed on. Little is known about his youth except he was a tease and thoroughly enjoyed fishing and small game hunting. He enlisted in the Army at 19 despite his mother's objections. He went to flying training school but never received his pilot's wings (reason unknown). He made many friends in the Army, one of which, Mr. Paul Johnson of Elgin, Illinois who has related a little of his relationship with William at Del Rio, Texas. The main memory of that conversation is that William had a nickname of "Patches". Following the war he returned to St. Clair County and apparently used his flying skills to fly airborne advertisements for a bakery in Anniston, Alabama. The story goes that he flew the bi-winged plane to his father's farm for a visit. On leaving he foolishly made a 'down wind' takeoff. As he turned to leave traffic the plane stalled out and crashed upside down in the pasture. His daughter has a picture of the crashed plane. From comments I have heard during my life, the crash was one of the biggest activities that ever occurred in St. Clair County. Sometime thereafter he and Dock Dewey headed south to join the boom times in southern Florida. He was a law enforcement officer in Pell City. He ran for deputy sheriff in a local election and lost. According to wife, they met while he was selling cars for his brother in law's Ford franchise in Pell City. Jobs were hard to find during the depression years. However, sometime in 1931 he was hired on to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Alcohol Tax Unit, and assigned to Marianna, FL. He married Mary shortly thereafter and she moved to Marianna with him. He still fished frequently in the rivers and lakes around Marianna, did a lot of undercover work in the area including Pensacola, and they enjoyed the nearby beaches at Panama City. Helen Jackson Cox says she was visiting us in Marianna on the day he was killed. Helen says she was sitting on the front porch when he left for work and Helen said, "now don't get killed today". He walked into a still in the lowland swamps of the Appalachicola River south of Blountstown, Florida. His gun was in his holster. As he entered and announced their presence, a Negro, Charlie Ash, was sitting on a bench and drinking the freshly made moonshine. Ash grabbed the single shot .22 caliber rifle next to him and fired one shot. It hit my father in the stomach. According to Dock Dewey, my father fell to the ground, rolled on to his back, and emptied the six shots of his Smith and Wesson .38 Special service revolver. Four shots felled Ash and the other two were allegedly dug out of a nearby tree by Dock. All of the members of the still were rounded up, but the informer, whose vehicle the arresting team had used, panicked and fled in the only vehicle. By the time another vehicle arrived on the scene and they transferred William to the Marianna hospital, he had bled to death. RE: John Robert Braden, 01-24-95.

She taught public school music from 1940 to 1957 at Arlington Elementary School in Bessemer. She moved to Pell City, Alabama during the summer of 1957 and taught second grade at Iola Roberson Elementary School in Pell City from 1957 to 1961. She moved back to Bessemer in 1961 and taught second grade at Jonesboro Elementary School in Bessemer until her retirement from teaching in May of 1969.

Following retirement she moved to Second Avenue North, Pell City, to a small house she rented from J. D. Abbott. Not satisfied there, she moved to the Trades Tower Retirement apartments in the South side section of Birmingham, Alabama in the fall of 1972. She lived there for 17 years until failing health required her to move to the Springs Manor Retirement Center at Cook Springs, Alabama, in September of 1989. She entered the nursing home facility of Springs Manor following accidents and hospitalization in January of 1991. She was moved to Ingram Manor Nursing Home at Eden (Pell City) in August 1991. Following hospitalization in December of that year she never got out of bed again.

The following notes were made during a visit with Mildred V. and Jimmie H. Hardwick at their home in Pell City, Alabama during September 1984. Interpretation is by John R. Braden. I lived in Marianna, Florida from my birth in 1933 until July 1935. Following my father's death on July 22, 1935, mother and I moved to Pell City. We lived two doors down the street from Nanny and Oscar Jackson. We lived with Adele Hardwick, mother's first cousin. Nannie Jackson, Jimmie Hardwick, Robert O. Hardwick, and Maude Jackson went to Marianna when my father was killed. Oscar Jackson gave them a car and Nannie drove. Mother and I came back in the second car. Mother needed to go back to study music in Birmingham. She moved back into the old farm house with her parents after remodelling the old house. She added a kitchen and a back porch. There was no electricity or indoor plumbing at that time. Water came from a well across the road. We moved in with my grandparents one, or one and one-half, years after moving back to Pell City following my father's death.

Mother went back to the Birmingham Conservatory of Music (now part of Samford University), but she did not live full time in Birmingham. She commuted back to Pell City every weekend. She hired Evola, a black domestic servant, to look after me and I lived with my grandparents under those conditions probably from the fall of 1936 until the middle of 1940. I must assume she graduated from the Conservatory of Music in 1939 as she taught music in Ragland, Alabama the year I was in the first grade in Pell City (1939-1940). During that year I continued to live with my grandparents.

We moved to Bessemer, Alabama in August of 1940. She had taken a job as a music teacher at Arlington Elementary School. As I remember, she had only one other job offer and that was in Jasper, Alabama. Public school music teaching jobs were not very plentiful.

Mother taught music in Odenville, Alabama before she was married.

The family had a big gathering at my Grandfather Braden's farmhouse in Ashville, Alabama sometime after my father was killed. Mother was shocked when Grandpa Braden stated that, "Mary is so young, she will probably marry again".

Mother's sister, Luciecate, attended Jacksonville State Teacher's College for one year. (year unknown)

Before mother taught at Odenville, Alabama, she went to Howard College (now Samford University) in Birmingham. She lived in the East lake area of Birmingham where the college campus was then located. She probably lived with Adele Hardwick. At the time she was going with Hoyt Hamilton, Harvey Davis, and Julian Bowley. She met my father at Annie Scott's (Luciecate's husband's sister) house.

Mother didn't go anywhere for a long time after my father was killed. Ernest Scott, Luciecate's husband's older brother, started spending some time at my grandfather's house. He slowly started taking mother out to different places. Ernest was somewhat like he was already in the family, so he was readily accepted.

Cecil Gray, one of Luciecate's brothers-in-law, wanted to borrow some money from my mother sometime following my father's death. The town banker, Mr. Pat Robinson, advised her that such an action was alright.

Mother's brother, Jimmie Hardwick, taught her how to drive a car. He expressed the opinion that he thought she was 'dumb'. He told her that never again was he going to tell her how to drive. (he should have seen her trying to take a simple photograph of me 24 years later)

Mother always had good cloths. She was real popular in school. When my father was killed she became different. She became more like her mother in disposition. EVERYTHING WAS GIVE! Leonard Scott, Luciecate's husband, imposed on mother. For example he would borrow her car on Sundays after church.

Mildred remembers that mother once had a party. They played spin the bottle. Robert Hardwick, mother's first cousin, kissed Mildred. Mildred remembers that someone in the family, probably mother, said that Jimmie was marrying beneath himself. The entire family met Mildred on the porch of the house following the wedding.

In one of my only meaningful conversations with my uncle, Jimmie Hardwick, in June of 1975 I related my concern at the time about mother and her personality. Jimmie recalled that my grandfather, Robert O. Hardwick, had once referred to her as the most selfish person he had ever known. RE: John R. Braden.

Epitaph by Donald & Rosemary Leake:

"We are gathered here today to honor the memory of Martha Lee Crow Leake who departed this life on Monday, December 22, 1995. She was the beloved wife for 45 years of Walter Wilson Leake, the cherished mother of Donald and Kenneth Leake, and the adored grandmother of Jeffrey, John, Kyle, Elizabeth, Catherine, and Michael Leake. Born 69 years ago in rural Oklahoma near Okmulgee, her childhood, while marked by hard work and by responsibility, was not without its pleasant memories. She had an older brother, Tony, a younger brother, Harold, and five sisters, Grace, Esther, Maude, Ruth, and Jewel. Family life was energetic, and since toys were few in number, she was creative in inventing games, a virtue much appreciated by her grandchildren. An early verse she spontaneously composed as a girl began 'Laura, Maude, and Martha Lee, they've just come from the red hot tree'. As a young woman her family moved North to Cleveland, Oklahoma, where for a time prior to her marriage, she worked for a family headed by Mr. Lee Lunceford. In order to distinguish between herself and Lee Lunceford, she adopted the name 'Leila', the name by which she was known by many of her friends, or often just as 'Lee', the Martha having been dropped, save for legal documents. Her ancestors in some ways typified the people of the Westward Movement in America. Her maternal great grandfather, the Reverend William Duncan was born in Indiana, his parents having come from Scotland and having settled on a 600 acre parcel on the White River in Indiana. The Rev. Duncan was a missionary Baptist Minister. He married Mary Elizabeth Ellander, who came from England, and they moved to Kansas. Their daughter, Mary Duncan, married Jessie Sanders, and in November, 1875, their daughter, Nancy Sanders, Lee's mother, was born. The family moved to Arkansas before Lee's mother was of school age where they homesteaded 9 miles from Bentonville. Nancy's husband, from Arkansas, was William Minter Crow - whom she married on March 17, 1901 in Peggs, Oklahoma. Lee was born the second child, on June 30th 1906. She was a beautiful young woman. An early recollection of her husband was of seeing her on a bridge. He was so taken by the sight of her that he asked who she was."

Notes for Grace Jane Ritchey:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

A very beautiful and touching memorial was written by Marilyn "Lewis" Middleton of her parents, which because of its length, has not been reproduced herein. Grace and her husband were living in Morris, Okmulgee County, Oklahoma during the 1930 census with their daughter Marilyn.

Richard Earl Lewis is the son of Charles Franklin Lewis and Clara Belle Evans ^[1]. He was born on 22 Mar 1895 in Montserrat, Missouri ^[1].

Notes for Richard Earl Lewis:

General Notes:

[crowhistory.ged]

There are serious questions remaining unanswered regarding Richard's parents at this time. His mother was reportedly Clara Belle Evans but a record of a marriage is also on file for Charles to Nancy Richards on 8-19-1877 (previously married to William Wesley Richards). To this point Charles has not been located on any census records as an adult. A search for him and his wife continues.
